

TOPIC WORKSHEET 1 OF 10

WORLD ORGANISATIONS

SS1.1 Personal, Social Groups and Processes (SS8.1.1.1)

Syllabus focus - Achievement indicators:

Students will be able to: (1) identify and gather data on the origins, roles and characteristics of some world organisations; (2) select and describe how these organisations have influenced the world socially, economically and culturally; (3) demonstrate their ability to respond to changes and hazards.

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Aligned to the NEW 2026 strand-based exam format (4 compulsory strands - 26/22/26/26 marks).

TASK 1 - Complete the table (origin, role)

Organisation	Founded	One key role
UN	19__	_____
WHO	19__	_____
UNICEF	_____	helps children
UNESCO	_____	_____
FAO	_____	defeats _____
IMF	_____	_____
Red Cross	_____	disaster _____

TASK 2 - Match the logo/fact to the organisation

- "Fiat Panis - Let there be bread" _____
- Founded by Henry Dunant in 1863 _____
- Founded by Ludwik Rajchman _____
- Kosovo is NOT one of its members _____
- A military defence alliance formed in 1949 _____
- An NGO that protects oceans _____

TASK 3 - Short answers

- Describe TWO ways a world organisation has influenced the world socially or economically.

- Explain how world organisations respond to hazards (disasters) in the Pacific.

TASK 4 - Picture study practice

- Identify the organisation, its founding year, and ONE role it plays in Fiji and the Pacific.

ANSWER KEY - WORKSHEET 1

WORLD ORGANISATIONS

- UN 1945 peace & security; WHO 1948 highest standard of health; UNICEF 1946; UNESCO 1945 peace through education; FAO 1945 hunger; IMF 1944 financial stability; Red Cross 1863 relief.
- Task 2: 1 FAO; 2 Red Cross; 3 UNICEF; 4 UN; 5 NATO; 6 Greenpeace.
- Task 3.7: any two - e.g. WHO fights disease worldwide; UN keeps peace between countries; UNICEF educates children; FAO improves farming and food supply.
- Task 3.8: they send aid - food, medicine, shelter and rescue teams - to affected communities.
- Task 4.9: FAO, founded 1945; helps Fiji by improving agriculture, fisheries and food security.